

The red star is where the council stop sign is

The blue star is where the public right of way stops on the drive- there is a sign saying no public right of way passed this point